Announcement on the postponement of ProWine Shanghai 2022

Dear Exhibitors, Visitors and Partners,

In face of the sporadic and frequent cases of COVID-19 outbreaks, following Shanghai's epidemic prevention policy, regulations on exhibitions' epidemic prevention and control, and in order to effectively protect the health and safety of exhibitors, visitors and partners, and ensure better exhibition effect, we prudently decide that ProWine Shanghai 2022 will be postponed to 8-10 November, 2023. With the Shanghai New International Expo Center (SNIEC) the venue remains unchanged.

Sincerely thank you for your care and support in the special period. This is a tough and sensible decision after a comprehensive consideration of various factors. We apologize for any inconvenience caused by the postponement. The ProWine Shanghai team is in close communication with relevant departments and all partners involved. We will strive to create the best and the most professional environment for exhibiting as well as visiting, to create a grand event and win wide acclaim from all participators.

The safety and health of our partners, exhibitors, and visitors is always our priority, and we will also strive to maximize the interests of all parties. ProWine is actively building more relevant trading platforms and schemes for the Chinese market. Regarding the arrangements and preparations for the subsequent exhibitions, please visit the official website of ProWine Shanghai (www.prowine-shanghai.com) or search "ProWine" on WeChat platform for any exhibition news and updates.
